Judy --

We're seeing Enron sell off just like a lot of other companies. The CEO (Skilling) and CFO (Fastow) have recently removed themselves and enough cash to remain comfortable for some time. There may be a good reason for the sell-off. Various accelerators on the way up could have turned into brakes on the way down. It looks like Enron has been bitten by too much leverage and creative financing -- recently it appears that there are contingent liabilities related to its water utility deals. There is a lot of off-balance sheet financing and potentially undisclosed risk. So I would not be surprised to see the stock continue to fall and not recover much unto perceptions are set right with investors. This isn't going to happen overnight.

Anyway, I'm out of the stock market a) until AAA corporate bonds start to turn up, indicating increased prospects for corporate profitability b) until it's clear that the middle east blowup is under control c) maybe next year at this time - the 15 months from Oct - Dec before an election year are best for the stock market.

I think there's still too much risk, prices are too high, and the bond market may be the best choice for a few more years. And I've been really, really busy.

1. Per the latest rate cases the nominal ROE's and related capital structures are as follows:

ROE 12.89% 12.18% 13.49% Equity Ratio(equity to debt) 60% 60% 42%

2. Is rate base calculated on equity or assets?

3. What was the percentage of capacity for each of the pipes for the first nine months of this year?

After our meeting today Mike and I met with Pat about some of the recent Adaytum issues and I would like to update you on the progress.

With regard to users loosing Contributor data previously entered, we believe they may not be waiting long enough after selecting Save, and closing the window before the save process is complete. This afternoon Pat sent the detailed instructions below, stressing that users wait until they receive the Done message before closing the window. She has asked users to let her know if they continue to have this problem. Due to the size of our applications they do take several minutes to open and may take longer to save.

The second issue involves salary calculations in the base models in Adaytum Analyst. Last week we corrected a formula to resolve this problem. As it turns out the changes made in Analyst last week are not there now. Hoang Vo, who is in Omaha today, asked one of his Adaytum colleagues, who is working on the Corporate project, to look into this. He contacted Pat and indicated he had experienced this same problem and supplied her with a macro to run after making the changes in Analyst. Pat updated several applications this evening and will check in the morning to see if it worked. This issue with saving in Analyst is not related to the saving issue in Contributor.

Additionally, Contributor has not been available for several days recently. This is due to problems with the server that is operated by Networks. Hoang has worked with the Sunrise technical lead and Networks, and this problem is resolved.

If there any questions, please don't hesitate to call me or Pat.

Thanks, Lee

From: Tilotta, Robert W Sent: Thursday, October 04, 2001 2:51 PM To: Kleb, Steve Cc: Geaccone, Tracy; Schick, Warren Subject: RE: NNG & TW Ad Valorem Tax Accrual - 2002 Plan vs. 2001 Forecast

Property tax liability, in a given tax year i.e. 2002, is directly related to the level of income and asset cost of the prior calendar year i.e. 2001. As in the case of NNG & TW, income and asset cost are increasing. Therefore, property taxes also will increase.

In order to keep the property tax liability flat, three strategies are available (1) book any gain on the sale of an asset below the line (N.U.O.I.), (2) assets there are no longer in service should be retired from the books of records, and (3) items that can be expensed should be expensed and not capitalized to plant, property, & equipment.

If you have any other questions or comments, please advise.

Operations Rebates

Sender	elaine.concklin@enron.com
Recipients	['tracy.geaccone@enron.com', 'rositza.smilenova@enron.com']
File	geaccone-t/inbox/458.

Tracy,

Over the past few months, Rositza has been researching where the rebates related to Operations have been booked because Phil had earmarked them specifically to assist us in achieving our stretch target. The rebates are not hitting Operations cost centers, and for numerous reasons from Accounting, they cannot be reclassified into the Operations hierarchies. Since the rebates received are outside of Operations and Phil should get credit for them, I am reducing our stretch for the upcoming forecast for the rebates actually recorded through September and those expected for Q4. This is a total of $1.0MM. If you need documentation, I can forward Rositza's research to you. Let me know if you have questions.

The "ETS" forecast we will submit for Operations will only include what will show up in that column for actuals at year end. It includes our IBIT estimate for co.'s 1202, 184, 42P, 1195. Any other amounts we have carried there in previous forecasts will be moved to the pipeline where we expect to see the actuals. This forecast should represent our best estimate of where we will actually end up for the year (as of today!). We continue to monitor spending closely, and will adjust next month if necessary.

Thanks, Elaine

Let me give you my thoughts. We acquired MGT on April 30. If you include O&M expenses prior to that period of time you will be including all of the MGT salaries, allocations and overheads for which we had no responsibility. El Paso, through the transition services agreement, is performing the accounting functions for MGT. Each month someone in my department provides to them actual expenses paid through Enron that need to be recorded as O&M on MGT. These are additive to those expenses processed through the El Paso system. I believe you should be picking up actuals from May 1 forward.

At Third Current Estimate, we added a full year forecast for MGT for Operations and added the MGT and Border amounts together on the Border page in the ETS Functional Income Statement as instructed.

We are trying to confirm what we should be reflecting. Jason is being instructed that ETS should not pick up any actuals for January through May, and that we should use Actuals received from El Paso for June forward, and not our numbers. The El Paso amounts for June through September are close to what we have, but not exact.

Please advise us as to what we should be reflecting and we will revise our schedules. We did not pick up MGT at all until 3rd CE, so I'm OK with restating 3rd CE to reflect the appropriate amounts for MGT and rolling forward from there.

Thanks, Elaine

It's that time of year when all the school functions set out to raise funds for all their needs, and all of us are inundated with school fundraisers. Thank Goodness, this is my last year of fundraising efforts for my children!!

My daughter, Michelle, is a High School Senior this year and is a 4th year member of the Stratford High School Spartanaires (Drill Team). She has some pretty tall goals to achieve, and we both would really appreciate any business you can give us!

We have a very large selection of personalized (or not) Christmas and Holiday Cards for both personal and business use. Your order will be shipped directly to you from the company.

We also have a great selection of personalized stationary (great for Holiday Gifts!). These are also shipped directly to you or any address you choose.

In addition, we have a selection of Holiday gift ideas including wrapping paper, bows, candles, picture frames, Holiday Tins with cookies, candy, etc. and a variety of other Holiday fare. I will deliver the items in this catalog to you at work.

We will be fundraising from now through October 29. Michelle will be turning orders in each week on Tuesday morning, so order early to get your items early. Michelle has to turn in her last order on Tuesday morning, October 30th. The cards and stationary are generally received within two weeks of your order.

Please see Maria Perales (x31437) if you would like to look at the samples and you cannot reach me. I have left the Big Holiday Card Sample Book with her, but have taken the other catalogs with me out of town for a few days. I'll be back in the office on Thursday, Aug. 23rd with these catalogs.

Thanks to everyone for your support! These products are very high quality, and you won't be disappointed! Please forward this to anyone you know who may be interested in ordering and Thanks Again! Elaine

The qtr forecast and CE due dates have been moved up from the original calendar each month. Don't you plan to continue that into the 4th quarter.

I show the following: 3CE due Sept. 13 4th Qtr Fcst due Oct. 15 4th Qtr Fcst due Nov. 12 4th Qtr Fcst due Dec. 10 Final Plan presentations due Oct. 31

Can you confirm that these are current dates?

Amelia,

I was reviewing the Plan Calendar after I heard about Phil's Director's conference. Tracy has a 2002 Plan Review with Stan scheduled for October 10th, which conflicts with Phil's Directors Conference scheduled for October 9th through 11th. Tracy has her calendar of Reviews with Stan on the intranet for the rest of the year. You may want to be sure they are on Phil's Calendar. Below is a link to Tracy's ETS Planning Calendar of due dates and reviews.

Tracy, is Stan's review still set for the 10th? If it is a firm date, do you think there will be further discussions regarding Operations by that time since we are reviewing O&M and Capital on September 5th.

Thanks, Elaine

Moving forward after this week's tragedy

Sender	communications@datek.m0.net

File	geaccone-t/datek/10.

Dear Tracy Geaccone:

All of us at Datek share with the country the sense of extreme loss and shock created by the terrorist events that happened earlier this week. It was a defining moment in U.S. history. As the time of healing begins, Datek joins all Americans in extending our sympathies to the victims and their families, and in supporting all efforts to make this country whole again.

Rest assured that your Datek account and the capital market system is secure, and that the assets you have invested with us remain fully protected. Datek stands ready to serve your needs when the U.S. equity markets reopen in the next few days.

On Tuesday, we shut down our call center shortly after the New York attacks. The location of our Jersey City headquarters--directly across the Hudson River from the World Financial Center--quickly made us a staging area for the area's massive rescue and re-supply efforts. Our call center was converted into a location where the rescued or injured were able to contact family and loved ones, and we transformed our building into a safe haven for victims of the disaster, as well as a command center for hundreds of brave rescue workers.

Countless Datek employees volunteered to pitch in whenever, wherever and however they could. Like so many other good Americans, they demonstrated their solidarity with the victims and their families by supporting the live-saving and life-affirming efforts of local authorities.

There are a few things that you should be aware of related to your online account with Datek and equities trading in general:

? The U.S. equity markets will reopen on Monday, September 17. ? The ability to place orders in your account will be available well in advance of the market opening. ? All pre-market executed orders on September 11 will stand and be cleared. ? All unexecuted day orders placed on September 11 will be canceled. ? All GTC orders will remain good orders until you cancel them. ? Any orders that you cancelled over the phone on September 12 and September 13 may still appear in your account as open orders. However, Datek will cancel these orders before the market re-opens. ? All margin calls due on September 10 will be due when the market re-opens. ? Any checks written against Datek accounts will be honored. ? All valid check, wire or Funds Now requests made after 2:00 PM EST September 10 will be paid.

As always, Datek Customer Service representatives are ready to assist you. If you have any questions about your account or Datek's capabilities, please call us at 1-800-U2-Datek (1-800-823-2835) or e-mail us at support@datek.com.

Our leaders have told us that the best way to beat back terrorism is by maintaining our composure and way of life in the face of barbarism. We were privileged to be able to play a role as the nation responded to this cowardly attack. Datek and our colleagues in the securities industry stand ready to continue to provide for the most respected and stable financial markets in the world. We appreciate your patience as Datek, the industry, and the nation return to normalcy. Our thoughts and prayers are with all those affected by these tragic events.

Sincerely,

Ed Nicoll Chairman and CEO Datek Online Holdings Corp.

Please see Debra Thompson's note below regarding not setting up FAR orders for floor space billing. I also received a message from Billie Akhave stating EPSC will not be billing to FAR orders -- only company/cost centers.

The last information I had was that all pipeline company employees' space should be billed to FAR orders. Has this changed?

Thanks for your help.

Maria, See the attached. I believe you will set up the co. 0062 and 0085 FAR orders.

Miriam, I believe you will set up the co. 1195 FAR orders but you need to check with Silvia first. I think you will also set up the co. 0584 FAR orders but check with Barney first.

Ruthann, Although there are people in the co. 0584 cost centers right now, they are in the process of being moved to other pipeline companies by 01/01/2002. There will be no employees on co. 0584 after the first of the year.

Thanks to all, Pat

We have been instructed to begin charging all floor space and related charges to FAR orders for all pipeline employees. I was advised that the FAR orders to be used should be xxxx20009999, which is "G&A Custom Variant - Asset Not Specific".

I've looked up all xxxx20009999 FAR orders in SAP and determined which cost centers for Houston employees need to have this FAR order set up. Attached is a spreadsheet showing the FAR orders which need to be created.

Please call me if you need any additional information, and let me know when the FAR orders are created.
