More people voted for Fridays than Thursdays. So we have decided on the first Friday of every month at different places. The first will be this Friday, June 8 at around 5:30 to 6:00 at Dixie's Roadhouse on I-10 (close to Chimney Rock if I remember correctly).

Hope to see you there. Just in case, my cell phone number is 713-419-0111.

Whitey - send out another message to the listserve and anyone else you can think of if you don't mind so that people will here it from someone other than myself.

That I am my friend, still smackin' the goods to the company's elite!!

Didn't ECT go out of bizness a few years back?

I moved over here last month after much soul searching and a little divine intervention; I got out while the gettin' was good (and there was still something to get out of) Remember, there are no layoffs in the Champagne Room...

So now I'm toiling away on the power desk, Commodity Risk Management to be exact. Currently, I take the wholesale curves and massage them to capture more of the physical risk associated with the retail bizness (cong., losses, ancillary etc.) A commercial role no doubt!! And last week I learned how to schedule power in California--take that to the cocktail party and stretch some honnies yessir!! i thought the'd never give a brotha the busbar...

BTW--either you are really early for Easter Bunny decorations, you've expanded on your rainbow welcome mat, or you are seriously remiss about the Christmas decorations (or worse, a party I missed inviting myself to?!) What's up with that? How is everything else going? How's Julie these days? Did you ever get those peppers to grow? God be willing, I'll have some chilis, serranos, and habaneros to trade this summer. Aye Poppeeee! Anyway, keep in touch, with others that is.
