John has asked me about hiring someone who will handle all the little matters of getting electricity and phone hook-ups, mail forwarding, etc. Is there a company that can do this? What kind of fees are usual? David Oxley mentioned that his real estate agent did all of this.....

Thanks,

Coralina, you'll recall that all of the above companies were set up to be part of the Power Plant/Regasification facility JV with Union Fenosa. That has died, and these companies are now considered "shelf" companies, with no business and no purpose; however, we cannot keep them as such, since they are costly, I'd like to dissolve them before year-end.

Would you kindly send me a return message with your approval to proceed with dissolving all of the above entities. I of course will send an announcement memo company-wide ("Notice of Intent to Dissolve") to give those involved a chance to review and respond back if there is any reason NOT to dissolve them. I do have one group wanting Enron Dominicana B.V.

Thanks Cora.

<html>Dear Greg, Eric, Addison:

Per my discussion with Bill Perkins and Eric last week, as a starting point to understand the Hermosa LNG Project, attached are some documents that we have prepared over the past few months along with a paper from a recent LNG conference on "Offshore LNG Unloading."=A0 I would hope this would begin to give you a sense of the scope of the project.=A0 There are, of course, many issues that need to be addressed.=A0 There has been substantial front-end work performed on the relative feasibility of using existing offshore pipeline infrastructure in support of importing LNG into California.=A0

Key aspects of the Hermosa project are:

=A8 There is an existing (unused) gas pipeline extending from the Hermosa petroleum platform that can be tied into Sempra=92s onshore existing intrastate gas pipeline infrastructure that can carry 400 mmscfd.

=A8 There is currently adequate and idle equipment that could be relocated to provide LNG import rates of 400 mmscfd.

=A8 A single ship unloading pump can readily and continuously supply LNG at a rate equivalent to 400 mmscfd.

=A8 California is the prime target for increased natural gas supply.

=A8 Once importation is initiated through Hermosa, the permanent has been set to construct a permanent, larger floating LNG import terminal

Some of the major areas of concern that are covered with this set of attachments include: <dl><dd>=A8 Ability to offload from LNG ship to an existing oil platform. <dd>=A8 =93Quick Start=94 capability, i.e., timetable when compared to =93traditional=94 LNG terminal, assuming such a terminal could be permitted. <dd>=A8 Costs to initiate LNG importation <dd>=A8 Time-table to initiate LNG importation <dd>=A8 Long term plans, i.e., how can =93quick start=94 be transitioned into less operator-intensive operation.

</dl>Please contact me with any questions you may have about the attached as it no doubt will not address all questions that might have.=A0

Best regards,

Jeff Beale

Hey all - just thought I'd update contact information. Please let me know if anything needs updating. Also - missing most people's bdays, spouses/children (for those that these apply to).

Separately, just a quick update on my search. While I'm FAR from completing anything (as some of you in the M&A world know better than me), I've recently signed a letter of intent (with a private equity team) to purchase a natural & organic food company in Denver. Very excited. Spending full time doing due diligence ... plus since there's always high odds that it will not happen, working on adding new things to the pipeline. Yell if you have any ideas.

Talk soon.

Kellogg Alumni - Houston

John,

I am a Kellogg graduate, class of 97. You spoke with me briefly one day at the MET when I was wearing a Kellogg shirt. Be careful about that sort of thing in the future. That is all it took to get me nominated to the speaker planning position.

Anyway, I have agreed to help organize the spring speakers for the Houston chapter of the Kellogg Alums and I am writing to ask if you would be available to make a presentation. This would likely be a joint session with graduates of some of the other top b-schools.

We recognize that you would not be able to speak about Enron, but wanted to try and get your views on the markets in general.

Please let me know if you think that this is something you would like to do.

Thank you, Michael 5-3583

In a move due to shock a few of you - I announced late last week that I'll be leaving Kraft after almost 12 years. I cannot say how excited I am - yet torn since I've had such a terrific time at Kraft. So - what now? I'll be with Kraft for another 3 weeks and then looking to chase some dreams. This is a great time for me personally and for the businesses I was running - so here goes.

Specifically, I am looking at things that leverage my love for (1) consumer marketing (2) operations and logistics management (3) ability to lead from a general management role ... as you'll see in the attached file: <<ASW Pyramid.ppt>>

I wish I could have shared sooner - but really could not - so I'll be reaching for many of you to discuss some ideas I've got and looking to network, specifically into: * VC/Equity Firms/Investment Bankers that own/specialize in $10-100 or 150 Million companies * People you know that have moved onto the small company world and might be helpful for me to chat with * Anyone you might know in the adventure travel or skiing worlds

Hope that's OK.

Separately, I promised an update of the 4Q lists. Here they are. Let me know if something if not up to date. <<Four Quarters - May 2001.xls>>

Still looking for email information for Jose Arenzana, Kerry Bradford, Rock Chen, Tim Coleman, Rob Davis, Brad DeSoto, Jennifer Guerrero, Amy Justice Irvine, Scott Muschany, Karl Safft, Brad Wilsted, and Dave Zawalski. Not bad - only missing 11 after all these years.

Lastly, you'll note that I updated my contact information. As of May 31st, contact me at home email: Address: 1634 N. Larrabee Chicago, IL 60614 Phone: (312) 337-9085 Fax: (312) 337-9086 Mobile: (312) 953-0136 E-mail: AndrewSWhitman@aol.com

Thanks Andy for pulling this together!

Hi everyone, it's Sheraton Kalouria. I just returned from a vacation in Ibiza, Spain, where I must say I thought frequently of our 4-Quarter class. And not JUST because I drank too much (!). The exposure to interesting, diverse personalities reminded me how enriching getting to know all of you was.

Quick update:

I'm living alone in Los Angeles. Like a ping-pong ball, I'm on the left coast again. Give me time, no doubt I'll be back in New York. But I don't expect that to happen any time soon, as a), I have 2 years remaining on my contract with NBC, where I'm the head of the Daytime programming unit, and b), I bought a house in the Hollywood Hills and I now have too much furniture to be contained in even the very largest domestic mini-van.

It's hard to believe how much time has passed and it's really great to hear how well everyone is doing. After 7 years with ABC, I jumped at the chance to lead a department, even though it was mired in third place for many years in the ratings. Since my arrival, I'm happy to report we've gone from "worst to first" on the strength of our two soap operas, DAYS OF OUR LIVES and PASSIONS. My marketing skills were put to the test when we launched an unprecedented novelization of a soap which ultimately landed on the New York Times best sellers list for 7 weeks. I even had the good fortune of interfacing with Marc Sznajderman on some NBCi.com matters.

Here are the vitals.

Sheraton Kalouria 7435 Palo Vista Drive Los Angeles, CA 90046 h) 323-850-7437 m) 818-903-7437 w) 818-840-4225

If any of you are in the Los Angeles area, please give me a call-I'd love to catch up. Also, The Tonight Show with Jay Leno tapes right here at NBC in Burbank and I would be happy to assist you with VIP tickets to a taping if you're interested.

Congrats. on the young Michael! That must be fantastic...my fiancé is from Houston and we go up to Spring periodically to visit her folks and I would love to hook up with you and the family if possible on one of those trips...yes, it is a common problem for traders - my dad eventually demoted himself back to the action - I think he said something about executive management draining the life blood from his veins? I am spending a lot of time in Detroit on our latest acquisition...it is looking like another home run...I will attach the press release.. Congrats on all the successes! Attached is an e-mail Aleck got from Seabron Adamson who is an economist/consultant with Frontier Economics that Aleck has recently used in Ontario. Seabron use to work at London Economics and was the author the of January 1998 London Economics Report that was commissioned by the Government of Alberta to assess market power in Alberta and develop alternatives options for the mitigation of market power in the Alberta Power Pool. The idea of the PPA Model was first introduced/described in Seabron's Report and his ideas formed the basis of what has ultimately been developed into the PPA Model we have today.

It looks like Seabron is available to help you out if you need him. Aleck has his phone number, etc.

WITH ALL DUE RESPECT TO YOU, there is a reason we make the comments we make and if you have a couple of hours I will be happy sit down and explain to you the lease accounting rules. In this particular matter, we are attempting to deal with an on vs off balance sheet issue. I realize that your commercial issues don't always work with the accounting, but in that case I would hope you would simply communicate that fact and then we could jointly decide whether we should finance this deal on balance sheet or not, given the size of opportunity you have. By the way, have you involved Joe Deffner or Brian Kerrigan from ENA Treasury.

Matthew, with all due respect, clients will be doing business with Enron as it is identified in the introductory paragraph and the signature block. Indeed, as a side note, most of the documents that I have drafted or reviewed always use some form of acronym for subsequent references to Enron. I am indifferent, but I know that the reason our accounting brethren made that comment, as well as the other comments they often make that seem counter-intuitive, is that it facilitates their efforts in ensuring that documents reflect off-balance sheet, soft costs related rather than on-balance sheet, hard costs. As such, I would defer to them on this issue.

Carlos, with all due respect to our Accounting brethren, from a commercial point of view, potential clients don't want to do business with EDM, they want to do business with Enron. So, please switch the EDM thing back to Enron and everything will be fine.

If you can initial next to Max's name to let him know you've given your approval and FAX the signature page, we can take it from there.

Thanks.

Attached is a revised version of the MOU. The most substantive were the addition of a couple of new sentences in section 2. Also, one of the comments that I got from accounting was that they prefer not to have references to Enron but an acronym instead. Otherwise, it's fine.

John -- Sorry we did not catch up when I was in Houston in December. At the time, I was in the process of leaving the company I helped to start and have joined a sports marketing agency to build their international business. At some point, I would be interested in speaking with you about some projects (domestic and international) that we're working on. One of our business groups specialize in the stadium/properties naming rights field and there are some great opportunities including the new Pittsburgh Steelers stadium. I thought one of your companies or possibly New Power might have an interest in taking a look at it. Let me know when you have a free moment. Mr. Lavorato, Hello. Below are estimates on the vacation we discussed last week. I know that Jamaica was not a set destination but I really feel something like the FDR Resort might be a good options for a family vacation. One of the biggest pluses is the nanny you are assigned upon arrival I think most people find it really makes the vacation stress free. I will be honest with you there are other resorts in the Caribbean that are nicer but they are not family resorts. Programs and things are offered for children usually starting at 4 years (sometimes 3) of age nanny services are not really provide and just babysitting that must be prearranged. If features like the nanny service are not as important to you then I will make other suggestions. I am not including rates on the Boscobel Beach Resort because they just closed to do renovation that will last until December 2001. If you have any questions, need additional information, or would like to set up reservations please do not hesitate to call or E-mail.

Regards, Crystal Schwartz

John,

Just wanted to make sure everything went o.k. I neglected to remind you again when we talked today about obtaining the Certificate of Occupancy, so I hope that the Seller delivered it as she had promised. If not let me know so that we can find an immediate solution. The only other things I would caution you on at this point would be as follows:

- 1) Make sure to put together your list of warranty repairs prior to 30 days from today's date and to deliver same to the Seller within such time period (per the warranty agreement).
- 2) Make sure to follow up with the Seller about the fireplace. She is supposed to finish that work within 60 days from today's date.

3) Make sure to compare your title policy, when it comes in the mail, to the marked Title Commitment you received today. There shouldn't be anything in the policy that is not in the Title Commitment. When you get the policy, you can send a copy to me and I will be glad to confirm this for you.

4) You should get the recorded deed in the mail from the title company or the county clerk. If you do not receive it within 30 days, call the title company and ask that they find it or obtain a certified copy for you.

If there is anything you need, just let me know.

Everyone -

I understand we are in front of a customer, ANC-Rexam, discussing potential contract renegotiation structures and language. I would like to temporarily stop dicussions until we can review what our legal position is regarding our current contract with ANC-Rexam and the associated strategy we are following in our current contract renegotiation discussions. EWS Risk should have the current positions and values ready on Monday afternoon so I suggest we meet then.

I will have Kim Hillis coordinate a time and location for Monday.

I contacted him and he was interested. We talked to Dave Ryan about him since they used to work together. Dave didn't think he would be a very good fit here because Mr. Abrams is basically a radio guy. Also, his current contract and non-compete restraints may be troublesome. However, he does have extensive experience and is distinguished in his field. We were going to keep him in mind but not actively persue him at this time.

If you would like to set-up some time to review what facts exist regarding billing and settlements in EES please give me a call. I think you and I getting together would make a lot of sense.

We (the Services Group) have a great deal that is being rebuilt/improved but at the same time have a lot that is currently working and we are making progress on many fronts.

Anthony D. and his team will get us closer to where we need to be once our technology issues are addressed. In the mean time -- we need to continue finding better ways to cobble our legacy systems together.

Bottom line -- your note is misleading...see the red and next time -- before you launch something like this -- please ask someone who is accountable for the topic you decide to discredit. I don't think we can grow a business together by tearing down others.

I can be reached at Ext. 53311 or on my mobile at (713) 444-3125.

Thanks and talk with you soon,

Evan,

I give a risk update to Rodgers and Don today. We deviated a little bit and I gave them a high level summary of billing and settlements (as Rodgers paraphrased below).

You might want to setup a meeting with Rodgers to bring him up to speed. Unfortunately I won't be around.

I could be on the phone if you want.

John -

The current functional reporting structure of Billing & Settlement's through EES poses near term and long term tactical risks we feel jeopardizes our ability to meet our goals and objectives.

Currently, Deal Capture and Risk Analysis/Reporting report through Sally Beck. However, Settlements and Billing report through Evan Hughes (EES). As such, the reconciliation process (Wes Colwell and Wade Stubblefield) is held hostage to any piece that breaks down. In this structure we (ENA) are able to control the progress and performance of Deal Capture and Risk Reporting. We are making progress on these fronts. We are completely out of the loop re: current state of affairs on the billing side (other than it just doesn't work). We are also out of the loop in assuring the proper approach and solutions are being implemented.

According to Anthony Dayao and other, there are approximately 11 different billing systems that feed CSC (we outsource billing to CSC apparently). Billing Group spent several months attempting to scope out the process and future requirements. This was done in conjunction with Union Finosa. I think that approximately $6.8 MM has been spent to date on this effort w/ Union Finosa (Anthony, is this accurate). Union Fin recently provided the group with a proposal and Anthony has negotiated 60 - 90 days to review and respond (Apparently, Billing wanted to go forward with just one week of comments). Bottom Line: this does not appear to be the proper approach to ensuring that we are solving our comprehensive billing/settlement issues as well as near term necessities.

PROPOSED SOLUTION: Billing/Settlements should report to Sally Beck (dotted lines to ENA and EES) EES can maintain customer interface through call centers and logo on invoice Convene an immediate meeting with Evan Hughes, Anthony Dayao et. al. to summarize current state (including Union Fenosa) Retain Accenture or KPMG to fully scope out current reality vs. business needs Implement action plan to address long term solution vs short term necessity.

Until we can resolve this, I am afraid that 1) decisions are being made without full consideration of ENA's view of business needs and 2) ENA cannot be accountable for when and if we can ever provide monthly reconciliations and flash to actuals. As we all recognize, unless you can reconcile the books, you really don't have a legitimate business.

John, could we convene a meeting if necessary for you to address these issues. I will be out next week and would like to leave knowing that we are on the path to getting this resolved.

Thanks, Rogers

John- this is not the finished copy... will get Julie to forward...

On the 4-6, I would just want you to meet the key funds... Tudor, Catequil, Harvard, SAC Capital (and maybe Paloma) here in NY- I'd condense the meetings into a few hours around lunch/dinner to maximise your time..

It would be great if you could make it.... let me know.. I'll be in Houston next week.. will say hello..

Attached is the revised Natural Gas Overview presentation you requested. Please note on slide 15, whenever the rig and production count is altered, the Henry Hub Cash Prices do not fall within the line chart. Please advise whether you would prefer the HHCP to adjust with the line, and if so, indicate placement since most of the dollar values are below the line.

Please let me know if I can be of further assistance.

Update on relocation process

Sender	pfournie@royalpage2.com
Recipients	['john.j.lavorato@enron.com']
File	lavorato-j/personal/14.

Good Morning Mr. Lavorato,

I am e-mailing you to give you an update on the appraisal process. Both appraisers went in to see the property on Friday June 16, 2000. We are expecting one written report today and the other one tomorrow. We should be in a position to give you your guarantee price by the middle of next week.

I was advise by Cendant Mobility that your spouse's first name is Dina. Please advise me if this is not the correct spelling of her name. I will correct it in our system. You can contact me by return e-mail at Pfournie@Royalpage2.com or by phone at 416-386-6028 or 1-800-410-2983 ext. 6028 Since I'm not totally sure at this point if your family has already vacated the property in Calgary so I don't want to send any documents there. I am attaching three documents to this e-mail so that you have them with you .

The first document is the offer information form and disclosure statement. Since this document forms part of the guaranteed offer, and would ask you to please complete this document and return it to me by fax by Monday June 26th. My fax# is 416-448-6358.

The second document is a blank guarantee offer. This document will be used in the event that you are able to negotiate a verbal agreement with a buyer prior to a guarantee price being established. If this situation occurs, please insert the agreed upon price and sign the RLRS Offer,. Return it by fax , along with the Power of Attorney which forms part of this package. Once these documents are received by RLRS, we are in a legal position to sign an offer on your home showing RLRS as the vendor.

The last document is the amended sale program procedures . This is the relocation program that has been approved by your company for your relocation. It outlines in detail the procedures to be followed under that program. It is a program that has been designed by the I.R.S. and the U.S. relocation council to deal with the issues of relocation and taxable benefits. One thing that I want to you to remember is that if you have an offer on your property, you must negotiate it verbally and please do not signed nor initial anything on the offer. Once you have come to a verbal agreement with a purchaser, Royal Lepage will sign that offer on your behalf.

You can contact me at the office between 8:00 to 4:00 or leave a voice mail message anytime.

I will be on vacation next week June 26th to June 30th. If you need assistance during that week please contact Jessica Desouza at 416-510-5764 or you can use the 800# and ask for ext. 5764. Jessica will contact you next week with your guarantee price.

Could you also please e-mail me your mailing address where to courier your guaranteed offer.

Do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions

Thank you,

Patricia Fournier Relocation Consultant

The CFO of the PX has called for a freeze on all collateral. We don't know what tariff provision allows them to do this. I am working with attorneys to figure out what we can do to compel them to release our collateral. Good luck.
