1st Annual 2-on-2 Basketball Tournament

When: November 17th @ 11AM

Where: 4527 Holly St. Bellaire, TX 77401

Details: It will be a 2-on-2 tournament at my house starting around 11AM. I should have college football games on all day in the house. LSU, UT, and A&M are all off that weekend.

I'm supplying all the gatorade, ice, and anything else we may need. Bring $5 to pay for the gatorade and whatever is left over can buy beer/go to the winners.

We will not setup teams. You either come with your partner or come hoping that someone else needs a partner, too.

It will be a double-elimination tournament on a 8 1/2 or 9 ft. goal and scoring will go as follows: to seven by ones, winning by two or first to ten points to keep games moving. We may need to put a time limit on games if we have too many teams.

If someone has an old TV that they can bring over, we can put it on in the garage in the backyard.

If you want to reply to me, please don't reply to all. This invitation is not limited to people in the cc: field, but please don't invite another ten people. We should have enough teams.

Call me, or send me an email, if you have any questions.

I have a couple of exciting things to tell you about. First, my website is up and running. Please take a moment to check it out. The link is at the bottom of this letter. Many thanks to Sarah Powell at Compose Digital Design for her work. Second, be sure to watch "American Roots Music" beginning Oct. 29 at 10PM ET on PBS. It is a 4-part series I had the pleasure to work on. I was the Director of Photography and shot interviews and performances in San Antonio, Austin and Gruene, TX, Mardi Gras in south Louisiana and Gospel in New Orleans, blues music in Helena, Arkansas, the Mississippi Delta and Memphis, and country and bluegrass in Nashville. Here is an excerpt from the press release about the show: http://www.pbs.org/whatson/press/oct01/amer_roots.html --New York (September 24, 2001) -Filmed at locations such as the Cajun Mardi Gras in southwest Louisiana, the Lakota Reservation in South Dakota and the Smoky Mountains of eastern Tennessee, the series captures the essence and storied history of early American song. The series will be the first to trace the evolution of Native American, country, blues, gospel, western swing, Cajun, zydeco and tejano music using archival footage interwoven with interviews, performances, recordings and photographs of contemporary musicians like Bonnie Raitt, Keith Richards, Ricky Skaggs, Marty Stuart, Marc Savoy, Gillian Welch and Robbie Robertson that will re-create the journey of American roots music from the past to its present incarnations. Four part "American Roots Music" Series to Air on PBS Beginning October 29, 2001 Palm Pictures to release companion 4 CD box set, DVD/VHS and "Highlights" CD on Oct. 30th Comprehensive Companion Book by Harry N. Abrams Inc. In Stores Now~~ Of course, I've been busy with other projects for Discovery Health, Anheuser-Busch, ESPN, Fox Sports, 60 Minutes, Travel Channel, Food Network, HGTV and another PBS documentary, among others. We are planning on doing Nick's bachelor party this Friday night in NOLA. He has a wedding shower on Sat. night and I am trying to see who all is going to be able to make it. I know there has been a lot of wedding stuff going on, but this is still Nick's turn and I hope that if you could be there then you will be there. The tentative schedule is to start off with some Monsoon's at Port of Call then go to Harrah's for a little while and eventually hit Larry Flynt's Hustler Club. I need to get an accurate count of who is going to make it in. Please send me a response on whether you will be in attendance or not as soon as possible.

I am watching the fourth quarter of the 9th Ranked Texas Longhorn as whipping of the 14th ranked Colorado Buffalo. I am very dissapointed - I had one of my to-do's this week was to send you a note to take another $100 of your dollars by giving you the 10 points - it looks like you would have needed 30+ though. Either CU is OVERRATED or more like The Horns are some bad ass hausses. The truth is that The Horns can beat any team in the nation any weekend.

I would enjoy the ass-whipping the Horns would lay on the Cajun Bitches from the Red Stick (Isu sucks).

I guess being a Colorado Coonass means you get punked by the Horns twice - CU and Lousyanna State both being inferior to the Horns.

Matt-

Hey there! Have you recovered from the Big Bash yet?? Heard you put on a kickass party...I heard ALL the details...) Anyway, as it is now close to January, Max wants me to send an email to you to pass on to all the ushers (Peder, Ryan, Scott & Merlin) since you have their email addresses. Florida in January is pretty busy, so you definately want to book your hotel reservations NOW...you don't need a deposit yet, I don't think, you just need to hold a room. Here is the info. on the hotel where everyone is staying (where we got group rates), also this is where the Rehearsal Dinner & the Sunday brunch are...the wedding is down the street, so you guys may just want one rental car for all of you. I think Thursday afternoon is when you will all go to the Tux place in North Miami to try on your tuxes & make sure that the measurments are right when they still have enough time to make any adjustments. Friday, during the day, Max will have something planned for you guys...

Please start getting your measurements now & we will send you another email when we find the place for you to call in your measurements in Miami. Call with any questions (303) 832-8160....The hotties in Miami are waiting for you...

The Miami Beach Ocean Resort 3025 Collins Avenue, Miami Beach 1-800-550-0505

*Say you are with the Harris/Schrutt wedding for group rates of: $160/night - city view $200/night - ocean view

If you need a travel agent, we have used June Schram with Young Travel previously at 1-800-426-9968 & again, say you are with our wedding party...

Take care & be safe.....Jen

I think Denis is going to come over and cook at my crib before the game (or before we go out to tailgate in the late afternoon). We can concelebrate game day with Bourge's and Gooch's B'day (both this week). If anyone wants to come over and eat, drink, and watch other good games on TV, please let me know so that I can plan for it. Let 's say it will start at Noon, with food to be ready around 1-2 o'clock, and beer to be ready all day. I figure we can go to campus around 4-5pm.....anyone interested?

Monday was a complete wash. I got there at 12:00 and only 2 others were there. When I talked to you and you said you were on your way, we hung up and my phone died. I tried to remember any number I could to try and get a hold of you, but I always use speed dial and don't know any numbers. Boone has a private number. I got your message on my voice mail at 12:30, but you didn't leave a number. I think I know where you guys went wrong with the directions. I bet you went south on JFK instead of north. The first light you come to on the north side is Greens. Then you take a right and it's a 1/4 mile on the right. We will plan another outing, but at a course you know how to get to.

By the way, I shot a 92. I was so hung over I was sweating scotch. I did drive a par 4. Was about 340 yards (missed the eagle, got the par).

How bout we all tailgate and have Denis cook there. Isn't that what LSU football is all about.

I think Denis is going to come over and cook at my crib before the game (or before we go out to tailgate in the late afternoon). We can concelebrate game day with Bourge's and Gooch's B'day (both this week). If anyone wants to come over and eat, drink, and watch other good games on TV, please let me know so that I can plan for it. Let 's say it will start at Noon, with food to be ready around 1-2 o'clock, and beer to be ready all day. I figure we can go to campus around 4-5pm.....anyone

Since work has gone to hell, I am hoping to find some excitement in the possibility that LSU may play in the Cotton Bowl (if Rohan "Alabama" Davey shows up for the next 3 games.) However, do not purchase tickets until it is a done deal - a lesson I learned following the Ark game last season.

Important information from AT&T resources: THIS IS VERY IMPORTANT INFORMATION PROVIDED TO US BY AT&T. DON'T EVER DIAL AREA CODE 809 MAJOR SCAM: Don't respond to Emails, phone calls, or web pages which tell you to call an "809" Phone Number. This is a very important issue of Scam Busters because it alerts you to a scam that is spreading extremely quickly can easily cost you $24100 or more, and is difficult to avoid unless you are aware of it. We'd like to thank Verizon for bringing this scam to our attention. This scam has also been identified by the National Fraud Information Center and is costing victims a lot of money. There are lots of different permutations of this scam. HERE'S HOW IT WORKS: You will receive a message on your answering machine or your pager, which asks you to call a number beginning with area code 809. The reason you're asked to call varies. It can be to receive information about a family member who has been ill, to tell you someone has been arrested, died, to let you know you have won a wonderful prize, etc. In each case, you are told to call the 809 number right away. Since there are so many new area codes these days, people unknowingly return these calls. If you call from the US, you will apparently be charged $2425 per-minute. Or, you'll get a long recorded message. The point is, they will try to keep you on the phone as long as possible to increase the charges. Unfortunately, when you get your phone bill, you'll often be charged more than $24100.00.

WHY IT WORKS:

The 809 area code is located in the British Virgin Islands (The Bahamas). The 809 area code can be used as a "pay-per-call" number, similar to 900 numbers in the US. Since 809 is not in the US, it is not covered by U.S. regulations of 900 numbers, which require that you be notified and warned of charges and rates involved when you call a pay-per-call" number. There is also no requirement that the company provide a time period during which you may terminate the call without being charged. Further, whereas many U.S. homes that have 900 number blocking to avoid these kinds of charges, do not work in preventing calls to the 809 area code. We recommend that no matter how you get the message, if you are asked to call a number with an 809 area code that you don't recognize just disregard the message. Be wary of email or calls asking you to call an 809 area code number. It's important to prevent becoming a victim of this scam, since trying to fight the charges afterwards can become A real nightmare. That's because you did actually make the call. If you complain, both your local phone company and your long distance carrier will not want to get involved and will most likely tell you that they are simply providing the billing for the foreign company. You'll end up dealing with a foreign company that argues they have done nothing wrong.

Please forward this entire message to your friends, family and colleagues to help them become aware of this scam. Additional information can be obtained from Lenny! jumping in the conversation without missing a beat....good to have you with us. Nice comedy....but the only fat, bald 30 year old is the Dogger. (just kidding dog, you's not fat....you's just fluffy). Don is bald, but not fat. Roby is balding, but just a little "stocky". Clint has a belly, but is not balding. Other than that, we are all pretty normal (please use that term loosely).

Your parents would love to have us at their crib. Dog could rummage through all of your belongings, eat all of your parents' food, and wake them up at the ass crack of dawn with scrambled eggs and jumby. Roby could show your mom "a good time". Porteous, Clay, and Myers could talk to your dad about his company's legal shortcomings. Bernie could sell you all some much needed life insurance. Clint could smoke, and Dehart could clear his lungs so that he could ski without falling dead on the slopes. Gooch could lend Don the money to build an addition to your maw's bathroom (so that Dog and Roby could smell it up). And Naquin could try to get with your sister, take notes of the whole weekend's proceedings, and make copies for all of us to remember them by.

Porthole....see if Timmy, Tricia, Mike Thomas, etc. would be interested in going on the trip...Lenny....see about all of your Houston Fiji buddies (house bitch, Tim, Val, etc.). Tell Tim we'll let him bring his new wife with him, too, although that might mean that there could be up to 3 Phi Mu's on the trip....quorum could be met, and "the Phi Mu Crew" might be in full effect; God help us.

Clint, what about Freret and Dawn (that might make 4 Mu's)?

Anyone else we can think of who might be interested in this trip (Jan 10 - 14th)?
