Kim,

I must await if credit wants new credit terms. You may want to call Ed Sacks and ask such.

Once you or Ed get back with me, we in Legal will be more than happy to redraft and send to TEP.

Can we resend this? I knew that we had done this before but it has been lost in the shuffle. They will be waiting for it ready to comment as soon as they get it.

Let me know if there is a problem.

Thanks,

Kim,

Please be advised, an draft ISDA was sent to Dave Hutchens of TEP by FED EX on 5/11/2000. To date ENA has never received any comments from TEP.

Ed,

Please advise if TEP's financial terms per your worksheet of 4/28/2000 can remain the same. If so Legal can provide TEP with a redraft.

Sara,

We are in the process of trying to lock in a fixed price for gas for Tucson Electric for the summer. We need to get a contract in place ASAP that allows a financial transaction with these guys. Have you guys ever looked into financial contracts with them? Let me know what information you need or if you have any questions. They are ready to do something today.

Thanks,

Kim, please find attached spreadsheet of our anticipated gas usage beginning in August of this year. This plant is currently under development in simple cycle configuration and will be converted to combined cycle operation in the near future. Its output, 48-60 MW will be sold to the State of California through the water department. Delivery point for gas will be SDG&E city gate.

Please provide 1yr, 3yr, and 5yr price indications including firm capacity. At a later date we may want to discuss fixed transportation and a NYMEX based float.

Kent,

Attached is a draft copy of our Master Purchase/Sale Agreement for physical natural gas transactions. As I mentioned before, we can enter into transactions for less than one year out. However, for those outside of a year and for longer terms, we need to have a master in place. Hopefully, we can get this one in place so that we will be prepared when/if we get ready to transact.

Let me know if you have any questions. I will have our legal guys standing by to help, too.

Thanks,

Kim, Citizens needs confirmation from ENA on deliveries to the TW/Griiffith interconnect for the following: July 17 - PPL claims that they bought gas after 8:30 AM from Enron. Citizens has billed them for the deliveries, but PPL has the deal as a purchase from Enron in there system and desire to have Enron bill them. Is this acceptable to Enron? July 26 - PPL claims that they bought gas after 8:30 AM from a third party, Texaco, in the basin and had it transported under the Citizens/PPL deal. Does Enron agree with this transaction? Space on EP to Nogales out of Permian Keystone or Waha is not available. It might become available in early Feb. We can watch it and look for a good day to do this. If it absolutely needs to happen in Jan we might be able to do a flow day diversion from the SoCal border but that will add a significant amount to the price as it would cost SoCal Border plus. Can we wait?

For April the indexes were as follows:

San Juan NGI - $4.51/MMBtu SoCal: $12.56 PG&E SoCal: $7.71

So, PG&E is a lot less valuable but still decent at $3.31 spread.

Re: your question, the more I think about it the more I think PG&E is the relevant index. A basket would be better for Citizens but less attractive to Griffith. Can you sell them on the basket?

What are your thoughts on using a basket approach to the index? ?As an alternative to just using either SoCal or PGE, we could use the average. ? Would any other index points be appropriate?

See the attached file. ?I have provided for averaging the two indexes.

Good morning Kim, You mentioned yesterday that Enron had some EP capacity to sell. Well, Citizens is wanting to know if Enron could make firm sales to it for gas to its electric generating facility, Valencia, located in Nogales, AZ. As I recall the gas requirements are in the range of 1 to 2 MMcf per day. I have the following questions which I would like to discuss with you on this subject: 1) Is there sufficient available capacity on the pipeline that will allow the gas to flow? 2) Could you make deliveries for the month of August and possibly September? 3) What would be the delivered price? 4) What is the expectation of this gas showing up everyday? Chris,

I hope that your voice is improving and that you are feeling better.

I have attached a revised Citizens/Enron Griffith supply proposal and a redlined version to show the changes from your draft. I have eliminated the $0.07 commodity add-on for Excess Utilities Volumes as we discussed yesterday. I have also eliminated the late nominations provision since it is not in the Griffith proposal. And, last, I have noted some pricing considerations for the Firm Peaking Requirements.

Sean and I have not discussed this proposal so everything is subject to his agreement. I hope to talk with Sean this morning.

All the best,

Good morning,

Hope you had a great Easter weekend.

Attached are two (2) word files for your review. First, there is the latest draft of the Sales Proposal which reflects the best efforts and intra day provisions. Second, there is the Alternate Nominations provisions. I spoke with PPL this morning and said that I would try to get both of these documents to them today. Your timely review and comments are greatly appreciated.

The Alternate Nominations language is being separately provided at the request of PPL so that they can review it. If they would like to have it incorporated, it can easily be incorporated into the proposal and/or agreement.

Chris, I used the working draft of the Enron/Citizens agreement from our meeting last Monday in Houston to draft the Alternate Nominations language. That draft did not provide for a price differentiation for nominations between 8:30 and 9:00 am CPT. Should there be one?

Our primary delivery point on the EP capacity is the border so it would have to flow as an alternative delivery location and would be subject to cuts. I would like to talk to you in more detail about this with the assistance of Stephanie Miller who is the tport expert in our group. Then you can decide how you would like to persue. Stephanie will be available in the morning before 11:00 am CDT.

This is an example of the type of things I continue to manage for Citizens. At this point my role is customer service, making sure their questions and concerns are being addressed. I work extensively with Patti Sullivan and Darla Saucier to keep things on even keel. I would like to stay involved as I think that is in the interest of the client and EPMI. but continue to ramp down. This has been occurring as you have already taken over the transaction side of the deal. If you want to take over everything that is fine too, and no offense will be taken, but doing so will take a significant investment of time on your part to get up to speed on the deal structure and the nuances of transport on El Paso.

As I discussed they want to get together next week to discuss the "new deal" and the TW operator transaction. These deals are somewhat hairy and will be hard to close, but there is a significant amount of money that we could make. I would like to help close that deal. With respect to the orig question, my thought is I am very comfortable having you determine how much orig (if any) you think I deserve after the fact based on the value you think I added to the transaction if it gets done. If you want to handle it yourself and use me as a consultant that is OK too.

Let me know what you think on Monday

We have been short listed on an rfp for Noresco, a power plant developer. Attached are the financial statement for the parent who is willing to guarantee the project. They plan to refresh prices and perhaps transact this week. they have received contracts from other potential suppliers already. I got the RFP late and therefore, I am running behind. I am attaching my proposal in case you need it. It will basically be a full requirements transaction out of our Social Pool for up to 20 years.

CAN WE MAKE THIS OUR NUMBER 1 PRIORITY AND GET CONTRACTS TO THEM TODAY?? PLEASE? I WILL SUPPLY BEVERAGES LATER IN THE WEEK OR PERHAPS A TICKET TO ASTROS TONIGHT (if I can find them!)

Darla,

I have completed reviewing your invoice revisions for October and November 1999 and January, February, June and July 2000. I have found a couple of discrepancies in the worksheets that you sent on December 22, 1999. Those discrepancies are as follows:

- 1) October 1999 - Transwestern - Commodity sale/purchase cost and pipeline transportation cost do not equal the total Transwestern cost. This is do to not using the rounding option in the detail computations. While this difference is only $0.01, the spreadsheet should total correctly.
- 2) January 2000 - EPNG - Total transportation cost was not equal to sum of details. Use of rounding option corrects the discrepancy.
- 3) July 2000 - Transwestern - Transportation commodity charges were based upon a volume of 153,272. The net usage after deducting 3rd party deliveries of 5,187 from measured city gate throughput of 160,650 is 155,463. Net usage should have used in calculating transportation commodity charges.

Attached are revised Enron worksheets for the above stated months that have been modified to reflect these changes.

In an attempt to close the book on invoicing and payment issues, I have extended Enron's "Citizens Revisions" worksheet to cover the period November 1998 through July 2000, file attached. The data presented for the months January through July 2000, were taken from Citizens' records. I request that you verify the accuracy of that data with Enron's records and advise me of any discrepancies. It should be noted that all corrections that you made plus the one stated above are reflected in the worksheet.

I will be in Houston next week and would like to meet with you to bring closure to these invoicing issues. I am scheduled to meet with Frank Vickers and other Enron folks at 10 AM on Wednesday, January 10, 2001. I have a flight to return to New Orleans at 4:30 PM. My morning meeting with Enron should conclude by noon. Please check your schedule and see if there is time either before 10 AM or after noon, that you can meet with me. I am willing to meet before and after my morning meeting, if necessary.

Please advise on your availability to meet and should you have any questions, please let me know. Thanks for your assistance.

Attached is a revised form of Collateral Assignment (this version provides Enron with a security interest in the marketer's Gas Purchase Agreement with the generator, and is marked to show changes from the last version that the marketer reviewed), as well as a draft of the consent to assignment that we would ask the generator to sign. Kim, the attached e-mail is from John Gregg. He is a lawyer from Washington DC. His firm represents alot of the Muni's across the country. He represents Mesa and others in the West. It appears that Enron is having some problems with Wilcox. Did we give that account to EES ? Do you know this Jamie Bellamy ? If possible we need to get this cleared up so that John does not take it out on us in the future.

Ron/Kim (Sent to both Enron Energy Services and Enron North America)

Please find attached a Request for Proposal for several Summit Energy clients in California. The first client is Smurfit Stone Container Corporation (SSCC), served behind PG&E. The largest site in this group is the Santa Clara mill site. This site owns Redwood capacity. We are interested in a supplier that can offer to manage that capacity in an effective manner.

As you know, the SSCC contract has already been sent to your office. Please work directly with Michael Dickson in our office here to go over any issues with the Smurfit contract. He has direct contact with legal at SSCC corporate. He is available at 502-429-3800 ext 111.

In the past, we received a marked up SSCC contract back from Enron. We would like to try and work through reasonable requests for changes to the contract and come up with a mutually agreeable deal. Keep in mind, if you choose to bid on Smurfit in this proposal, that we request that your pricing reflect (Bid One) the terms and conditions in the SSCC base agreement (including the payment terms).

For the remaining Summit Energy clients, the bid process should be fairly straightforward. SGL Carbon (SoCal Gas) and Borden (PG&E) have agreed to basically the same base agreement. We have attached those terms and conditions for your review.

Newell Rubbermaid (SoCal Gas) and Libbey (SoCal Gas) are willing to work with the marketer agreement. Summit Energy will review your agreement and request any changes we deem necessary.

We look forward to hearing back from you. All proposals are due in by close of business Monday, May 21. Thanks in advance!

Please call me with any questions regarding the RFP.

Attached is a draft of Enron's response to your request for proposals for gas supply to power generation plant in development by Calpeak Power, LLC. As requested, Enron has provided indexed pricing with the option to convert to various fixed priced products during the term of the agreement.

The options presented are not intended to represent a complete list of opportunities, but are representative of the different pricing structures Enron offers. There are several additional structures available and we look forward to discussing these options with you.

The volume would be at least 5,000 dth/day. I'd also like to see the indicative prices of a "no-cost" collar for this time period; for example, if I'm interested in a ceiling at $5.00, would the floor price be $3.75/dth, $4.00/dth? The call options premiums were just too expensive.

If you have any questions, give me a call. And thanks again for all your help.

Penalties/Contract costs etc

Kim ? Wanted to follow up with yesterday's emails when you get in this morning. Let's address: 1)??? Pricing for rolling contract forward on a month-to-month basis until changes are made to the way SoCal Edison purchases power. 2)??? Pricing for contracting for all of the other sites on an Index plus cost for a one year term and leaving the LA Vernon site to roll month-to-month. 3)????What exactly are the penalties that Enron is subject to should LA Vernon cause Enron to be out of balance for the day?? What are the options we need to present to SSCC to address this issue in a contract? 4) ??? The Irvine location.? When we first spoke, Jason was involved with this location.? I had stated that I thought they would be better off on tariff.? Due to the recent closing (December 2000) of the core program to customers with the exception of those whose suppliers leave the market, this option is now not available.? Jason mentioned doing a long term fixed deal.? This decision needs to be addressed by SSCC corporate and the plant.? We will provide the costs to SSCC corporate for this customer and decide on pricing from there. 5)??? Set up a conference call for the beginning of next week with John Ewing at the LA Vernon site to discuss power opportunities after August 2001. ? Thanks, hope you had a great night anyway! Sara,

Salt River Project has attached their Schedule to the Master and their Credit support Annex to this email. I know we have sent them our docs in the past so I don't know where this will take us. It doesn't look like they have entered the pertinent credit information into the annex. Are they expecting us to do this? Please let me know what you think. The guy that sent this to me is Mark Russell and his email address is below.

Thanks,

Mark,

The best person to talk to about the ISDA is me. I discussed an ISDA with Tim Roberts when I was in the Salt River offices on March 23rd. A draft ISDA was sent to Bill Abraham on November 17, 1999. I requested for a new legal review on 3/28/01. Let me know if you need a new draft and I can send you or Tim a copy. My number is 713-853-0685.

Thanks for your inquiry -

What's your take on this? They want to meet with me on friday in San Diego to discuss a potential deal as we were short listed on the RFP to supply gas to the Calpeak power plants. If we can't get credit established and contracts in their hands, I don't know if we want to waste our time - or money. Let me know what you think ASAP.

A couple of thoughts regarding Charles Hinckley's email and your pending trip to San Diego:

1. I have scoured all of United Technologies' filings and even their website. I found exactly ZERO references to CalPeak Power, LLC. I'm not saying that CalPeak ISN'T a wholly-owned subsidiary of United Technologies, but I find it strange that I can't find anything on CalPeak in United's filings/online info.
2. If CalPeak is indeed a subsidiary and WILL guarantee CalPeak's obligations, then we are in great shape. United Technologies is A+ rated, with lots of liquidity available in the form of unused lines of credit.
3. If CalPeak will not benefit from a United Technologies guaranty, then we definitely need to see their financials/management notes.

Will they send you the financials/notes before you leave for San Diego?

Dear Mr. Gore:

I am completely appalled at your behavior in all your "on behalf of the people" efforts. The people have spoken and been counted twice by a computerized process. Now you have fought to pick and select certain counties in which to hand count and "further allow the people to have a voice". The voice you want to hear can be created through your legal manipulations, which by the way, you learned well through your boss over these past few years (great job on copying his character, sir). But the genuine voice of the people has already been heard. And since it wasn't the voice YOU wanted to hear, now is being overruled by your political ploys.

I have always been so proud of America. I've lived overseas for graduate work and travel frequently overseas for the work I do. But now, sir, I am ashamed. You have shown complete lack of integrity and character. You do not care, sir, about this country. You clearly care much more about your obtaining this office. You do not care, sir, about the voice of the people, but rather that the right voices be heard and all others squelched. I am ashamed of you and find this completely a disgrace to the office you are so bitterly and petulantly fighting for and a disgrace to the nation. Our America was built on integrity, character and honor. You sir, have gutted that foundation.

Do you recall the phrase "God's Country" -- it still is, sir. And you someday will have to discuss this with Him directly. He also favors truth and justice. And I'm not sure your attorney's will be available to help you rewrite His definitions quite as well as you've rewritten America's.

Mr. Gore, you are NOT a man to lead this country. And you've proven that so very clearly in your actions over this election. Shame on you, sir.

And that's "a voice of the people" for you

That price indication does reflect the time value of money - so - if bought - power in 2001 would be billed at $61/MWh.

Thank you so much! That is quite useful information.

Question relevant to longer-term quotes...are those cash-flow year "settlement" prices (in other words, if a deal was done today for on-peak power in the year 2011, would an invoice in the year 2011 be settled at $61/mwh, or would that price somehow need to be adjusted to reflect inflation).

In addition to reviewing our Q3 gas and power portfolios, we are currently assessing various new local generation resources.

As part of our assessment, it would be quite helpful to have a relatively current forward curve for NYMEX gas, CA Border gas, and SP15 electricity. Could you provide monthly data for 12-18 months and annual data for 5-10 years for forward transactions? This doesn't necessarily need to be today's curve, as long as it is recent and the prices are from the same point in time.

Also, please provide current SP15 and Border gas quotes for Q3 and 12-month strip.

Thanks!

Thanks Mike, we have left a message for Dave and are waiting to hear back from him. Also, we are definitely willing to fix the physical basis for you and float on the Nymex. And this will help your credit cause. So now I am assuming that you guys are focusing on fixed basis for 1000/day with GD on the swing. Would you guys be interested in looking at a transport structure for the first 18 months of the transaction? I am looking at the economics of this to see if it will help you. Call me if you need anything.

Thanks,

Kim,

The E-Connect Project is still underway and will probably be in production by the end of this month. E-Connect will be the newest way to connect to Enron's network from home or when traveling. However, attached is the instructions for an alternate way to connect to Enron. These instructions have been approved by my boss. They are self-install instructions, but since we are such good friends, I do not mind helping you out. If you need help setting up your Click@Home PC and/or VPN access to Enron, feel free to give me a call to schedule a time for a home install. I will be doing a home install for Mike Grigsby tomorrow around 6PM. He is in the Westheimer and Kirby area, so depending on where you live and if time permits I can help you as well. You can also give me a call and I can help you out over the phone.

You will need to have the BlackIce Software available for the second set of instructions. This CD was sent to all Click@Home customers in a blue folder/packet with a mousepad. I can give you a CD with just about everything you'll need, tomorrow.

Thanks,

Hey Doug,

How are you? (Do you remember me - from El Tiempo?) Just wanted to touch base with you about sailing lessons. Although the Austrailia trip sounds really cool - I don't think I can manage this year. Also, I did commit to doing this with one of my friends - can't leave him in the dust!! Anyway, can you recommend a good place for lessons in Keemah? Maybe the place you are taking your lessons to be an instructor? I would appreciate any recommendations!! Going to AZ tonight - I'm sure I will run into you when I get back.

Have a great weekend,
